

Bee Fly

Family: Bombylidae

These flies are small and hairy, with long slender legs. The wings are outstretched at rest and often have dark markings. These flies are commonly seen hovering over flowers.

