

Cicada Killer

Family: Crabronidae

Cicada Killers are large, solitary wasps that are predators of cicadas. They will hunt cicadas, sting and paralyze them, and then stock their in-ground nests with them for food for the developing larvae. Although large and alarming, they are typically not aggressive towards humans.

